

INDIAN COUNTRY FOOD AND AGRICULTURE

Sponsored by the Seminole Nation of Oklahoma &
The Wewoka Service Unit Health Advisory Board
Location: Grisso Mansion 612 Wrangler Blvd.
Seminole, OK 74868

The Seminole Nation is offering a free one day workshop to work with you, our partners and stakeholders, toward sustainability of diverse agricultural on February 19, 2014, beginning at 8:00 am.

Special guest speaker will be Janie Simms-Hipp, J.D., LL.M. who (Chickasaw) is currently serving as the Founding Director of the Indigenous Food and Agriculture Initiative at the University Of Arkansas School Of Law. She most recently served as Senior Advisor to Secretary of Agriculture Tom Vilsack. In that role she advised the Secretary on Tribal Relations and served as the Founding Director of the USDA Office of Tribal Relations in the Office of the Secretary. She also serves as Of Counsel to the Ollson Frank Weeda Turman and Matz firm in Washington DC, the nation's leader in food and agriculture law representation.

Key points addressed will include:

- Opportunities
- Challenges
- Creating vision and establishing policy

Lunch is provided by the Seminole Nation. Please RSVP

By telephone (405-257-7207) or email (jones.j@sno-nsn.gov) before February 14, 2014 to reserve your spot.